If you aren't using a VPN or TOR, you should be!!!

Big tech and ISPs are like cousins that fuck even though they know it's wrong.

Hide your real IP when here guys. At least until we kick the fuck out of everything and everyone that's fronting for China

You shouldnt have used Shitscord in the first place. They received a massive amount of their funding from Tencent, another CCP company much like the pieces of garbage that own(ed?) Tiktok. It's literally fucking spyware, monitoring your active processes and all communications.

I was wondering if anyone was going to mention IRC. So simple.

it can log your ip??

▲ aaaronsohn 2 months ago +1 / -0

IRC logs your IP, and all communication is sent in plain text with no encryption whatsoever, that anyone can sniff and/or spoof.

Right. We realized this back in the 1990's, but kids "discover" it again without researching the security flaws. There have been extensive debates over the pros and cons of IRC for decades. Here's an example: <https://security.stackexchange.com/questions/113532/how-is-irc-so-secure-untraceable-that-hackers-and-pirates-use-it-to-communicate>

Both of the posters that wrote big blocks of texts are knowledgeable, but the second guy is making some big assumptions, especially about the abilities of the NSA tools and whether the ability to track further by other entities is out there and in use.

Spez: I see I'm rent-free in some squeaky little twerp's mind, all my posts are downvoted. That's like so absolutely devastating! The loss of ONE fake internet point per post! How will I ever survive it?

Lame.

▼ Yep, I got nuked along with the server and everyone else. Did someone post stuff that was against TOS?
When I was reading the server everyone was talking about their political ideologies lol.
I never participated and sent a message to Discord demanding they reinstate my account. Probably won't, but at least someone has to read it.

2 I get that some here may have gave some warning but as much as I'm on TD still can't see every post. It's not pede like to belittle those who tried to do the right thing and don't happen to know the inner workings of every site. People got screwed by another liberal SM site, myself included (pretty bad too) but it's more productive at this critical time, helping them get up the ladder then standing a few rungs up shaking your head at them....
